Thomas Jefferson Memorial Church – Unitarian Universalist Bylaws

ARTICLE I - Name, Mission, Participation and Denominational Affiliation

I.1 - Name. The name of this religious organization is Thomas Jefferson Memorial Church - Unitarian Universalist (hereinafter referred to as “Church”).

I.2 - Mission. Thomas Jefferson Memorial Church - Unitarian Universalist is a church of the liberal tradition rooted in the heritage of Unitarian Universalism and dedicated to the belief that in every individual there are extraordinary possibilities.
WE ARE committed to the individual and collective pursuit of spiritual growth, social justice, and life-long religious education and understanding.
WE FOSTER an open and free community in which we share our gifts, care for one another, and honor our differences.
WE SEEK to have a lasting influence on local, national and global programs that promote equity and end oppression.

I.3 Inclusivity and Nondiscrimination. This Church is intentionally nondiscriminatory. Therefore, in its activities and practices, this Church welcomes and promotes the full participation of all persons of whatever race, ethnicity, creed, gender, ability and/or disability, affectional or sexual orientation, gender identification, age (except as limited by legal membership rules), economic status, or origin.

I.4 - Self-Government. The Church is a self-governing body whose final authority is vested in the members of the congregation acting through a congregational meeting.

I.5 - Affiliations. This Church belongs to and supports the Unitarian Universalist Association.

ARTICLE II - Membership

II.1 - Member. Any person who supports the purposes of the Church and recognizes and understands the need of the Church for support through financial contributions and active participation shall become a member upon signing the Membership Book in the presence of a Minister, the Director of Faith Development ~~Religious Education~~, an officer of the Church, or the Chair or Assistant Chair of the Membership Committee.

II.2 -Voting. Any member may vote if present at any meeting of the congregation held at least thirty (30) days after he/she has signed the Membership Book.

II.3 - Withdrawal and Reinstatement. A member may withdraw from active membership by submitting a written request to the Church. A member who has withdrawn may be reinstated by making a written request to the Church..

ARTICLE III - Church Years

III.1 - Administrative Year. The administrative year shall be July 1 through June 30.

III.2 - Fiscal Year. The fiscal year shall be July 1 through June 30.

III.3 – Personnel/Staffing Year. The employment year shall be July 1 through June 30.

ARTICLE IV - Congregational Meetings

IV.1- Required Meetings. There shall be one congregational business meeting each year held in late spring to adopt a budget, and elect officers, trustees-at-large, and congregationally elected committee members .

IV.2 - Special Meetings. Special meetings may be called by the Board or shall be called by the President upon petition to the Secretary of 10% of the members as last reported to the Board. The petition must state the purpose of the meeting.

IV.3 - Call and Notice. At least ten (10) days prior to any meeting, written notice (electronic or U.S. Postal Service) must be sent to members, either by letter or by publication in the Church Bulletin. In addition, notice of a meeting must be announced from the pulpit on the Sunday preceding the meeting. Such notices shall state the time, place, date, and business of the meeting. Only the stated business may be transacted during the meeting, unless an addition to the agenda is unanimously approved by the voting members present.

IV.4 - Quorum. Ten percent (10%) of the membership as last reported to the Board of Trustees shall constitute a quorum. Business may not be transacted without a quorum. Only members may vote.

IV.5 - Procedures. Procedures shall be governed by Robert's Rules of Order, the latest revised edition, in all cases not covered by the bylaws. A vote shall be by secret ballot if five (5) members request it.

ARTICLE V - Board of Trustees

V.1- Authority of the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees (hereinafter referred to as "the Board") shall administer Church policy in conformity with the bylaws. It shall have general charge of Church property, and authority to conduct the Church's business and manage its financial affairs.

V.2 - Policy Manual. The Board shall adopt and maintain a Policy Manual which states the important policies and procedures of the Church as approved by the Board.

V.3 - Specific Duties. In fulfilling the mission of the Church, the Board shall perform the following duties: solicit financial support for the Church; submit an annual budget to members for approval; administer the approved budget; maintain and support a strong Religious Education Program; be responsible for appointment of, administration of, contracts for, and dismissal of staff members other than a Minister; establish ad hoc committees and special task forces, approve the duties of these committees and task forces; appoint persons as delegates to the General Assembly of the Unitarian Universalist Association and other denominational and community bodies; and perform such other duties as may arise under its authority. The Board shall assure that the accounts and funds administered by the Church or any of its agencies are subjected to review at least annually, either by the Finance Committee or as the Board shall otherwise direct.

Note: Articles V. 4 through XII.2.2 below are revised to reflect Governance Task Force Proposal. Also see technical change to Article II.1 above.

~~X.1~~ XI.1 - Endowment Committee

~~X.1.1~~ XI 1.1 - Purpose. The Thomas Jefferson Memorial Church - Unitarian Universalist shall have a separate Endowment Fund(s). The purpose of the Endowment Fund(s) is to safeguard principal and generate earnings and growth of funds to be available for very special projects that cannot be supported from the annual church budget. Each year up to five percent (5%) of the general Endowment Funds' market value may be used for: (1) capital expenditures for the maintenance of the physical facilities for all property owned or controlled by the Church above and beyond normal budget allocations; (2) major capital equipment purchases; and (3) extraordinary expenses beyond those in the normal operating budget, including debt reduction.

~~X.1.2~~ XI.1.2 - Governance. The Endowment Fund(s) shall be governed by an Endowment Committee, which shall serve as the custodian of the Endowment Investment and Distribution Policy.

~~X.1.3~~ XI.1.3 – Composition and Terms of Office. The Endowment Committee shall consist of ~~seven~~ five (5) church members, including the chair. One member shall be appointed by the Finance Committee and ~~six~~ four (4) shall be appointed and/or approved, two each year, by the Board of Trustees from the congregation at large. In addition, the Treasurer of the Church and trustees of any other Church Endowment Funds may serve as ex-officio non-voting members. The President of the Board may request that the Nominating Committee recruit members of the Endowment Committee. The appointment of the Committee's ~~seven~~ five (5) members shall be for three-year terms, renewable at the discretion of the Board and the Finance Committee for their respective appointees. No member may serve more than two consecutive three-year terms. After a lapse of one year, former Committee members can be re-appointed. The Committee shall elect its own chair.

~~X.1.4~~ XI.1.4 - Duties and Responsibilities. The Endowment Committee is empowered, acting through its elected chair, to hold, sell, exchange, rent, lease, transfer, convert, invest, re-invest, and in all other respects manage and control the assets of the Endowment Fund pursuant to the Endowment Investment and Distribution Policy. The Committee shall act in its sole judgment and discretion as it deems wise and prudent, without further approvals.

[Finance Committee section below needs updating by DAF and Finance Committee]

~~X.2~~ XI.2– Finance Committee

~~X.2.1~~ XI.2.1 – Purpose. The Finance Committee is a permanent committee for Thomas Jefferson Memorial Church-Unitarian Universalist which shall act as an advisory body for the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees in decisions related to the financial health of the church.

~~XI.2.2~~ XI.2.2 – Duties and Responsibilities. The Finance Committee shall assist in the development and execution of the annual church budget. The Finance committee may draft and recommend policies related to financial issues to the Treasurer and the Board. During the budget-building process the Finance Committee shall assist the Treasurer and the Personnel Committee in recommending salaries and benefits for the Minister(s) and all staff members. The Finance Committee shall report directly to the Board of Trustees independently or through the Treasurer.

ARTICLE ~~XI~~ XII - Nominations and Elections

~~XI.1~~ XII.1 - Nominations (except for a Ministerial Search Committee).

~~XI.1.1~~ XII.1.1 By Leadership Development Nominating Committee. At least one month before the annual business congregational meeting, the Leadership Development Nominating Committee shall prepare a list of qualified nominees for officers of the Church, trustees-at-large, members of the Leadership Development Nominating Committee, and members of the Personnel Committee. The list shall be printed in the notice for the annual business congregational meeting sent to members. The list shall also be presented at the annual business meeting. In the Fall, the Nominating Committee shall prepare a list of qualified nominees for Council Chairs and, when requested by the President, members of the Board appointed committees. The list shall be presented to the Board for approval.

~~XI.1.2~~ XII.1.2 - By Petition. Ten (10) or more members may place names for any congregationally-elected position office in nomination by petition to the Leadership Development Nominating Committee at least seven (7) days prior to an election. The names of the nominees by petition shall be so designated and added to the list of nominees at the meeting.

~~XI.1.3~~ XII.1.3 - From the Floor. Nominations may be made from the floor at the time of an election.

~~XI.1.4~~ XII.1.4 - Consent. No person shall be nominated without that person's consent.

~~XI.1.5~~ XII.1.5 - Special Elections. When a special election is held to fill vacancies, the Board may place names in nomination.

~~XI.2~~ XII.2 - Elections.

~~XI.2.1~~ XII.2.1 - Individual Offices. If there is only one nominee for any office, the chair shall declare the nominee elected by acclamation. If there are two (2) or more nominees for any office, election shall be by written ballot, and a plurality of votes shall be sufficient to elect.

~~XI.2.2~~ XII.2.2 - Group Positions (e.g., Trustees at Large). If the number of nominees for any group of positions equals or is less than the number of vacant positions, the chair shall declare the nominees elected by acclamation. If the number of nominees exceeds the number of vacant positions, election shall be by written ballot, and the positions shall be filled by those nominees receiving the largest number of votes.

[The Board will need to decide section XIII.4, Duties and Responsibilities (of the Minister) will be revised re: "principal administrator of the day-to-day Church operations.]

ARTICLE XIII – Minister(s)

XIII.1 - Fellowship. All candidates for Settled Minister(s) shall be in fellowship or in process of fellowship with the Unitarian Universalist Association.

XIII.2 - Freedom of the Pulpit. Each Minister shall be free to express and act upon his/her opinions, beliefs, and convictions, both in the pulpit and in the community at large. It is understood that a Minister's views are not necessarily those of the congregation. Any member shall be free to express divergent views.

XIII.3 - Selection . The Board, advised by the Search Committee and the Finance Committee, and with agreement by the ministerial candidate, shall recommend to the members of the congregation a proposed contract or letter of agreement between the ministerial candidate and the members of the congregation. The President shall call a special congregational meeting to elect the Minister and approve the contract or letter of agreement. Written notice (electronic or U.S. Postal Service) of this meeting shall be sent to all members at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the vote to elect the Minister and approve the contract or letter. Voting shall be by secret ballot. At least eighty-five percent (85%) of those voting must approve the election and contract or letter.

XIII.4 - Duties and Responsibilities. The Minister(s) shall provide religious leadership and pastoral care to the congregation. In cooperation with the appropriate committees, the Minister(s) shall provide Sunday services; shall be the principal administrator of the day-to-day Church operations; shall serve as a non-voting member of the Board and will be expected to attend its meetings and report on work accomplished; shall report on the state of the Church at the annual business meeting. The minister(s) shall be ex officio on all committees except the Leadership Development Committee and the Ministerial Search Committee.

XIII.5 - Committee on the Ministry. The Board shall establish a Committee on the Ministry consisting of at least three (3) members of the Church, serving two (2) - year staggered terms. Terms are renewable for an additional two (2) years. More than half of an unexpired term shall be considered a full term. The primary purpose of this committee will be to interpret, support and monitor the ministry of the Church. The Board shall select members of the committee from a list of multiple nominees submitted by the Minister(s).

XIII.6 - Tenure and Termination. Each Minister shall have indefinite tenure. The relationship between the Minister(s) and the Church may be terminated by either party. The terminating party shall provide a minimum of three (3) month's written notice. However, the Church may, in place of notice, provide three (3) months' severance pay. The Church shall give notice of termination to a Minister if a majority of members at a special congregational meeting called to consider termination has voted by secret ballot to so act. Written notice (electronic or U.S. Postal Service) of such a meeting shall have been sent to all members at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the meeting.

XIII.7 - Interim Minister. If the members of the congregation decide to call an Interim Minister, the guidelines of the Unitarian Universalist Association for calling interim ministers shall be followed.

ARTICLE XIII V- Indemnity

A duly elected or appointed officer, trustee, employee, or agent of the Church shall not be personally liable to the Church or to its members for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty, except for liability resulting from: (1) any breach of duty or loyalty to the Church or its members, or (2) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law. The Church shall indemnify any person and his/her estate and personal representative against all liability and expense incurred by reason of the person being or having been duly elected or appointed as an officer, trustee, employee or agent of the Church.

ARTICLE XIV – Conflict of Interest

No member of the Church Board of Trustees, or any of its Councils, Committees, or Task Forces shall derive any personal profit or gain, directly or indirectly, by reason of his or her participation with the Church. Each individual shall disclose to the Church any personal interest which he or she may have in any matter pending before the Church and shall refrain from participation in any decision on such matter.

ARTICLE XV – Disposition of Property

If this Church should at any time cease to be a member of the Unitarian Universalist Association, all of the property of the Church, whether real or personal, shall be transferred to the Unitarian Universalist Association for its general purposes; and this bylaw shall apply to all property donated to the Church, whether by will or in some other manner, unless the donor expressly provides otherwise. If the Church ceases to be a member of the Unitarian Universalist Association, it shall be the duty of the officers of the Church and the Board of Trustees to take all necessary action to carry out the purpose of this Article.

ARTICLE XVII – Remembrance Garden

The Remembrance Garden is a permanent addition to the Church. The garden may be moved or discontinued only by both a majority vote of the Board of Trustees and by a three-quarter (3/4) vote of those members present and voting at a congregational meeting duly called for that purpose.

ARTICLE XVIII - Amendments

Amendments of the bylaws may be proposed by the Board of Trustees or by petition of twenty (20) voting members. A congregational meeting shall be called to consider the proposed amendment. The notice of the meeting shall include a draft of the proposed amendment. These bylaws, so far as allowed by law, may be amended or repealed by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of those present and voting at the congregational meeting. However, amendment or repeal of Article XV must be by a two-thirds (2/3) vote at two (2) consecutive congregational meetings separated by at least two (2) weeks.
